CMLS Financial announces appointment of Angelo Lamanna as Vice President, National Real Estate Advisory.

TORONTO, April 22, 2021 - CMLS Financial, one of Canada's largest commercial real estate finance companies, is pleased to announce the appointment of Angelo Lamanna as Vice President, National Real Estate Advisory. Angelo will lead our real estate advisory business across Canada and will be based in our Toronto office. Angelo has more than 25 years of executive and international experience within the commercial real estate industry including most recently in his role as Partner at a global real estate advisory firm.

This appointment will enhance and support CMLS growth in Canada and the company's continued commitment to, and investment in, the Canadian commercial real estate market.

"CMLS Financial is at an important stage in its expansion," says Pierre Bergevin, Senior Vice President, at CMLS Financial. "We are excited to welcome Angelo to the National Advisory team. His extensive leadership experience, deep relationships, community and client-centric approach and demonstrated success in building businesses complement our strong entrepreneurial culture and enhance our coast to coast service capabilities."

"CMLS is the perfect environment in which to grow a high-performance financial advisory platform," says Angelo. "I look forward to expanding the business and creating enhanced value for our clients."
